

GREGG LONDON'S STAR TREK TRIVIA – STAR TREK

<http://www.glondon.com/puzzles.html>

1. What four Starships participated in war games with the U.S.S. Enterprise and the M-5 multitronic computer in "The ultimate Computer"?
2. What was the name of Gary Seven's cat?
3. What is the more common name of the space-flight maneuver known as the light-speed breakaway factor?
4. What kind of ship was the S.S. Botany Bay?
5. What is the meaning of the acronym IDIC
6. What position did the mirror-universe Sulu hold on the I.S.S. Enterprise?
7. In the episode "The Savage Curtain", the Excalbian creature forced two groups to fight in order to study good and evil; which four historical figures fought for evil?
8. What was the name of the Vulcan ship destroyed in "The Immunity Syndrome"?
9. In "I, Mudd", what was the name of Harry Mudd's wife?
10. On what planet did Captain Kirk try to strand the mutated Lt. Commander Gary Mitchell?
11. What was the name of the card game Captain Kirk invented in "A Piece of the Action"?
12. In "The City on the Edge of Forever", a famous novelist recommends three words, even over "I love you". What are they?

13. The episode title, "The Conscience of the King", comes from what famous work of literature?

14. Before Captain Kirk and Christopher Pike, Gene Roddenberry envisioned another captain of the U.S.S. Enterprise, whose name appears in his original proposal for Star Trek; what was the name of this captain?

15. Name the twelve Constitution-class starships of the United Federation of Planets in commission during Captain Kirk's original five-year mission.

16. In "The Deadly Years", Kirk bluffed his way out of the Romulan Neutral Zone by saying he had a device that would explode and destroy all matter in a 200,000-kilometer radius. What non-existent device did he say he had?

17. What is the written and spoken language of the Klingon Empire?

18. What was the name of the illegal substance that made the women in "Mudd's Women" look more attractive?

19. In "For the World is Hollow and I Have Touched the Sky", what is the name of the multigenerational spaceship built inside a large asteroid?

20. What was the name of the "Friendly Angel" in the episode "And the Children Shall Lead"?